

Dydd Gwener 25th Hydref
To edit refine and redraft.

Terrifyingly the four brave Solges opened the bath room door. Cautiously they saw petrifyingly they crept towards it, they were petrified but confident Gethin was first the brave one he had spiky hair. He was followed by Rebecca she had dark blond hair she was chatty and funny next Madi, she was shy crazy fun funny and had brown wavy hair. After Madi was Leah she had short brown wavy hair and she was crazy fun.

In a blink of an eye Rebecca turned to Gethin the both tiptoed to the spooky door they stopped half way then Gethin whispered "Madi you and Leah will come after me" and Rebecca "I'm scared!" replied Madi.

"Well don't be!" screamed Gethin

"are you killing the vampire or not actually you had to becos we've planned it out all ready"

"fine all do it go on gethin just open the door so we can get this done with" one of us will slam shine chuc and hold the cross!

Harts ponding as fast as lightning the brave gang entered room 13. IE took a brief second or two for there eyes to adjust the hell hole were the demon steps. The demon's coffin lay in front of them looking as high as a sky scraper. The blood hovering Monster Lay in side his coffin he had a black cape and a pale face with ruby red daggers. Rebecca's torch flickered on and there shadows across the horrible room 13. It was scary than they thought but they were still confident. They were all thinking about what would happen.

In the blink of an eye Gekhin lifted the stake ready to stab the vampire he was sent to if he was awake or not. Leah ran in and shone her light on the demons neck. at that moment Madi ran in and threw the holy water over the beasts face. His eyes flashed open after that Leah rushed in and held the cross up the vampire screamed with pain Gekhin slammed the stake the demons red evil eyes closed that was no longer a vampire.